Welcomed into Stewardship: Elizabeth Gelfeld

Absent: Vince Sheppard, Cynthia Dahlin

Visitor: Pat Conover,

Housekeeping: Stewards will meet on Sunday, May 6, at 5:30 pm at Seekers.

Moderator: Deborah

Worship: Joan

Recorder: Marjory
& Jacqie

Angels: Margreta

Agenda:

This meeting's worship was led by Margreta. Her theme was: "God Remember Me". She led us in singing the chant as in Taize. Thanks, Margreta!

Elizabeth Gelfeld read her Spiritual Autobiography. This was a highlight of the meeting. Afterwards we spoke to the scope and depth of her presentation. Each Steward spoke in a personal way and we welcomed her into Stewards.

Aging Together report: Jacqie (see attached).

FOG proposal: Marjory

There was an $11k surplus in the 2017 budget. After the Quiet Room is refurnished, the remainder will be divided evenly between the Capitol Area Food Bank and Dayspring.

Art Hop: Sandra

This year's event will take place on Saturday, April 28 and Sunday, April 29. Baltimore photographer Dag D'Agostino will showcase his work in our Seeker's gallery. The show will be hung on Monday, the 23rd. It will remain until late May or early June when Keith's work is ready to be hung in our gallery into the summer. Sandra is asking for Sunday volunteers to attend the exhibit. She will send an email with her request.

Ecumenical Council: Keith, Marjory

- The COS website is in the final stages of completion. The plan is for it to go live in the next few weeks. There is an ongoing search for a good logo.
- Mike Little is doing Kayla's work with visitors. Additional help is being sought.
- Right now, people can see the CoS website "in progress" at churchofthesaviourdc.org. When it "goes live" to the 11,000 subscribers on the inward/outward list, the address will be: inwardoutward.org.
- Book Ministry – Kate Lasso's son Manuel will head it up.

Two Stewards sharing: Glen & Peter.

Soul Talk concluded our meeting.
