

A Sung Prayer on the Eve of a Federal Election

Praying for Peace and Justice on November 3, 2024

By the Time You Hear This Song

By the time you hear this song, we'll know
If everything went wrong, we'll know
If decency sings louder than fear
By the time you hear this song

By the time you hear my voice, we'll know
The meaning of the choice, we'll know
If it was just another election year
By the time you hear my voice

Hosanna, hosanna

By the time you hear this song, we'll know
Where you and I belong
By the time you hear this song
